ANNOUNCING

On January 29, 2014 In-House Production went “Live” with it’s newly designed web site.

We Thought about putting a picture here of the Home page. But decided not to, as a static picture can not portray the visual Dynamic’s of the new site.

The new design, will configure itself, to all the standard browsers on your Computer, Smart Phones, Tablets, and Touch Pads.

We think you will find it helpful and user friendly. Don’t forget to visit often. This new design, being more Dynamic, will be updated on a more frequent basis. The most recent version of our Rental Catalog is accessible from the site.

Lets Talk Story about the WEB page or ?

“Talk story” is a Hawaiian expression, used as a noun or verb, meaning “an informal chat” or “to chat informally.”
