OFFICE EXPANSION

After months of renovations our new office expansion is nearly complete. We'll soon have 8 new office spaces and a new shipping office; also, we have consolidated our shop and warehouse into one place for easier rental tracking and fabrication. This expansion is intended to make more resources available to our employees to assist our clients needs. With this in mind, In-House Production will work with you from the beginning till the end of your show. Having professional and experience staff to provide you the show labor you'll need.

Feature Product

In-house Production's PRO-LOCK (also available in black nickel plated)

Probably one of our more popular rigging products, In-House Production's Pro-Locks have been one of our better sellers and continues to be a favorite of anyone who uses them. The Pro-Lock has a distinct and competitive advantage to other similar products. First you'll notice how it is one forged piece not separate pieces, less to lose right? Available in in silver and black nickel plated, keep a look out for our new product catalog to be distributed soon.
